Funeral Directors in Christchurch

Unattended Direct Cremation - No Service Funeral

DIRECT CREMATION £700.00

plus disbursements of crematorium and doctors certification fees

Where, either from personal choice or financial preference, a secular or religious service for mourners to attend is not desired or is inappropriate, we are able to offer the following dignified service. This includes collection of the deceased from a local hospital or mortuary, provision of a quality, simple coffin, and direct transfer to a crematorium.

- Provision of an experienced funeral director's services
- Assistance and advice on registration
- Provision of a simple coffin suitable for the purpose of cremation
- Transfer of the deceased from a hospital or mortuary in normal working hours
- Care of the deceased
- Direct transfer to a crematorium of our choice for private cremation
- Provision of a certificate of cremation
- Collection of cremated remains or scattered at crematorium without witness present.

This arrangement specifically excludes collection of the deceased from out of office hours, embalming, viewing of the deceased or any funeral procession or mourners attending crematorium chapel.
